

Harjit Bhatia Joins AGCA Singapore as Executive Chairman

December 16, 2014 09:00 AM Eastern Standard Time

SINGAPORE--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Asia Growth Capital Advisors (Singapore) Pte Ltd ("AGCA") is pleased to announce that Harjit Bhatia has joined the company as Executive Chairman. He was till recently working as Managing Partner and CEO at PineBridge Asia Partners.

AGCA was founded in August 2010 by Harjit Bhatia and Soma Ghosal Dhar, formerly Chairman & Managing Partner and Partner respectively at CSPEA. Previously, Mr. Bhatia was involved in setting up private equity businesses in Asia Pacific for GE and Credit Suisse. He has had over 40 years investing experience in Asia Pacific region across private equity, industrial lending, corporate finance and investment banking from his prior times with General Electric Company, PineBridge Investments, Credit Suisse Bank, Deutsche Bank and State Bank of India.

AGCA is a Singapore based private equity firm specializing in providing advisory services and structured solutions to LPs/ institutions seeking liquidity for their investments. The firm also provides portfolio management and investment management services for optimizing value from both "seasoned portfolios" as also fresh investments across growth sectors in Asia. AGCA and its affiliates have experienced teams and presence in Seoul, Hong Kong, Mumbai and Singapore, working on a select number of portfolio management and advisory mandates for reputed global institutions and investors. AGCA team collectively has over 80 years of investing experience in the region.

Previously, AGCA partnered with HarbourVest Partners and Axiom Asia Private Capital in December 2012 for acquisition and management of seasoned private equity portfolio from Credit Suisse Private Equity Asia Partners, LP ("CSPEA").

Contacts

Asia Growth Capital Advisors (Singapore) Pte Ltd

Tanvi Bhatia, +65-6808-6155

www.asiagrowthcap.com